

Spring and Summer Scents

Apricot Freesia –This is an upbeat blend of fruit and floral. If you don't like fruit scents because they're too sweet, try Apricot Freesia. The Freesia really tones down the syrupy notes while the Apricot livens up the Freesia. Freesia flowers are one of the most fragrant, originating in South Africa. Pair it up with yummy Apricot and you get....instant love.

Hydrangea – Many of us remember Hydrangea from our childhood. The good news is that we are falling in love with them all over again. The fragrance carries a subtle and sweet fragrance, with a hint of spice. Strong, but not overpowering, Hydrangea remains a springtime favorite and a perfect scent for gift giving to someone who appreciates a different twist on floral.

Fresh Bamboo -This clean scent reminds you of crisp jungle leaves in a damp rainforest. Throw in the smell of wild Bamboo stalks, crisp Aloe and Jasmine Petals, with base notes of Vetivert and soft musk mixed together in a refreshing blend. A spring/summer winner!

Ginger Peach –A Pier One duplication, Ginger Peach is juicy peach, ginger and black tea. This classic blend is mouthwatering, fresh, uplifting, cool, and and...CLASSIC. What more can be said about a best selling scent, year after year?

Black Amber and Lavender –Deep and sophisticated, this fragrance blends rustic Amber with bold Parisian Lavender. Combined with these main scents are mysterious Black Myrrh, dulcet vanilla Tonka bean, and a splash of Egyptian Musk. Then rounded out with a surprising addition of raw Clary Sage, resulting in an earthy concoction with hints of sweetness and pleasing floral notes.

Deep Rich Chocolate Amaretto - This is the rich and creamy Chocolate fragrance that you've been looking for. The fragrance remains strong and satisfying, it is a dark chocolate with a very pervasive undertone of mocha and cocoa. Add some rich, fragrant and tantalizing Amaretto and MAMMA MIA! Instant addiction!

Indian Sandalwood - Deeper and richer than the regular Hippie sandalwood of the 60's, a wonderful woody scent that is great by itself, smells just like what you'd expect an Indian Sandalwood Incense to smell like - smoky, deep, musky, dirty, sensual. Indian Sandalwood is a touch sweeter than the Hippie version, a different twist that is worth trying!

Moroccan Mint -This is a scrumptious blend of Spearmint, Peppermint and Corn Mint, with just a touch of black tea sprinkled in to provide a stable, full bottom note. It's cool, crisp, refreshing & sure to become a favorite.

Pineapple Cilantro - This glorious sweet fragrance is toned down beautifully by the addition of an unlikely herb: cilantro. Ripe pineapple juices are complemented with coconut shavings, bursting orange notes and sparkling cilantro. Warm vanilla and mists of musk complete this zesty aroma!

Vanilla Oak –This is a perfect mystical blend. With notes of light Camphor, Italian Bergamot, Cassia Root to provide flighty top notes, this fragrance really shines with the strong middle and base notes of Sweet Heliotrope, Soft Amber, Warm Oak, Sandalwood, Patchouli and Creamy Vanilla. It's a lot to fit in one small fragrance but you'll be enchanted.

Creamy Goat Milk – Fresh, hours old raw Goat Milk from a nearby KY Amish homestead is the main ingredient of this soap. This soap is the creamiest and most hydrating ever. Goat milk soap has been recommended for people with dry skin, eczema, psoriasis, acne and sensitive skin.

Jewelweed – Made from wildcrafted Jewelweed gathered from the banks of the Slate River in Eastern Kentucky, this soap is softly scented with Sweet Basil and Comfrey. Jewelweed is best known for its skin healing properties. The leaves and juice from the plant are used by herbalists for poison ivy, poison oak and other plant induced rashes, as well as many types of dermatitis.
